
AMIA's Spotlight Award

The Spotlight Award honors individuals or organizations who have made significant contributions to the field of audiovisual archiving and/or to AMIA through specific accomplishments or a career of achievement and contribution. The Award is presented at the discretion of the AMIA Board.

Award Recipients

Chapin Cutler in recognition in recognition of a lifetime of work dedicated to the art of film projection and presentation, education, and collaboration between the exhibition and archival communities. (2017)

James Hendler in recognition of his visionary role in creating access to diverse content through semantic technologies and machine learning. (2017)

Bob O'Neil for his contributions as a mentor and as an advocate for AMIA. One of AMIA's earliest members and advocates, Bob mentored students and young professionals throughout his time at AMIA, and has always been a vocal ambassador for AMIA within the film community. (2014)

Pam Wintle for her significant contributions to AMIA and the archival community. She has devoted her time and talents to the preservation and appreciation of moving images through her entire career, and has shown tireless commitment to AMIA since its founding. (2014)